$100 Hamburger

I received an email a couple of weeks ago from Larry Geiger about a restaurant at the Norfolk airport (KOFK). It is called the "Barnstormers Flyin Bar & Grill". It is located in the old passenger terminal and is open 10 to 10, 7 days a week. Larry says it has great food, several different rooms and 2 bars (not that you can use it if you fly in, but your passengers might enjoy it depending on how much you scared them during the flight). He stated that the pilots lounge even has a pool table. (See pictures on the last two pages. Just so you know, Larry did send a picture of the bar, but I thought that is something you have to see for yourself since we do not want to give anyone the idea that flying and alcohol go together, which they do not.) 😊

Now, I am assuming this is a new restaurant since none of the airport directories I use (AOPA, Flight Guide, Garmin MyPilot and Foreflight) have it listed. I am just happy to hear there finally is a "good" airport restaurant in the local area, meaning only 76nm from Millard. There are other airports in the area like York (you have to drive), Beatrice and Anita (you can walk) that have restaurants close by, but it has been awhile since there has been one at an airport. OK, St. Joseph has one, but in my opinion.... Anyway, I think I will try this new place out. If anyone else goes please give me a report so it can be forwarded to the rest of the Chapter. Also, please let me know of any other airport restaurants that you have enjoyed so I can provide a list in a future newsletter.

Now for some more flying info. I received the following from our friends in Kansas.

Fifth Annual Once Every So Often Harold Neumann Memorial Chili Dog Fly-In

A long, long, time ago there were many fly-ins throughout the year in the Kansas City area. The Kansas City Chapter of the Antique Airplane Association, in addition to their annual fly-in at either Lawrence Municipal Airport or at the Atchison Kansas Airport, would host the occasional impromptu breakfast fly-in at the now gone (heavy sigh) Mission Road Airport. EAA Chapter 91 would hold their annual fly-in at either Excelsior Springs Airport or the East Kansas City Airport in Grain Valley, MO. IAC Chapter 15, The Kansas City Aerobatic Club, would hold their annual 4-category aerobatic love-fest at the Ottawa Kansas Airport. EAA Chapter 200, "The Sunflower Chapter", would serve pancakes several times a year at Gardner

Municipal. However, the last fly-in of the year was always held at Harold Neumann's private strip near Olathe, KS. This fly-in was strictly a word of mouth affair that drew 20 to 25 experimental and antique/classic airplanes to Harold's strip in late October or early November. On that Sunday afternoon we would gather around a fire built from creosote soaked railroad ties, roasting hotdogs, eating home-made chili and enjoying the fellowship of our fellow aviators, all the while trying to stay warm!! It has been quite some time now since we lost Harold and even more time since there was an end of season fly-in at Harold's strip. Well, we cannot go back to "Neumann (Pvt.)" but we can honor Harold's memory with the Fifth Annual Once Every So Often Harold Neumann Memorial Chili Dog Fly-In!

This event will take place on Saturday, October 15th at the Gardner Kansas Municipal Airport (K34), "The Best Little Airport In Kansas". With chili, hotdogs and drinks provided by EAA Vintage Aircraft Chapter 16 (side dish or dessert appreciated, but not required), we will gather at noon in the outdoor pavilion and stay and swap lies about our aviation prowess and speak of our memories of Harold until we can no longer stand each other. If you have any questions about this event, or want to donate a pot of chili, please call Bob Gandy at 913-634-8617 or email skyblzr@att.net. Please put "Harold Neumann Fly-In" in the subject line as I don't answer all the offers I receive to represent someone from Nigeria in regards to their financial issues

We look forward to seeing all of you at K34 in October.

Young Eagles

Our next YE event is at 0800 on Saturday August 6th at Millard. As always, contact Kathy if you can help either on the ground or in the air. Bruce will be solo for this event, so let's help him make it go smoothly.

Tom Poberezny retires: You most likely have heard by now that Tom is retiring as the Chairman of EAA and AirVenture Oshkosh. I was one of the lucky people who just happened to be at the old flight line entrance, known as the brown arch, when he made his announcement during a last-minute press conference. I go there every year to remember my father-in-law. He was a long time EAA member even though he was not a builder nor a pilot. He just loved planes and we would watch the afternoon air show from there when it was considered air show central.

AirVenture (Oshkosh) 2011

I do not have anything special to report about Oshkosh. I was there for one day. It took me 3.5 hours to drive there from my place in the UP of Michigan. My goal this year was to complete my shopping list, then see as much as I could before joining old friends for the air show and dinner, then drive back to my place in the UP. It was a long day! And to top it off, I only found 1 thing on my list. Well, I did find another but the salesperson recommended I contact them after Oshkosh so I could trade in my old unit for a new one, thus saving $50. Kudos to the people at CO Guardian. I do have to report that I saw several Chapter 80 members. Ask Dick Austin about his Oshkosh friends and the great parking/camping spot they enjoyed. Also, ask Paige Hoffart or Bob Condrey about some event that seemed to have them dragging the next day. Must have been all that RV builder talk into the wee hours? I hope to spend more time next year.

Inhofe proposes pilots bill of rights

Sen. James Inhofe, R-Okla., has proposed legislation designed to ensure pilots fairer treatment and more access to information in FAA enforcement actions, reform the appellate process and create advisory boards to help improve the notices to airmen and medical certification processes. Inhofe outlined his Pilot's Bill of Rights legislation, S. 1335, on the Senate floor Tuesday, invoking lawmakers' responsibility to "prevent agency overreach." (From AOPA Aviation eBrief 7/7/11)

FAA Administrator Randy Babbitt made a quick visit to EAA AirVenture on Thursday and spent an hour talking with the Oshkosh crowds in the show's big forum pavilion. He gave a short update on FAA issues, answered a list of questions from EAA president Rod Hightower, and fielded a few queries from the audience. He said he was "deeply troubled" by the failure of Congress to extend a funding bill, forcing the agency to furlough 4,000 workers. "I had no choice," he said. "I personally regret having to take this action." Getting those workers back on the job is his number-one priority right now, he said. Regarding the future of avgas, Babbitt said, "I think we are on track to come up with workable solutions. But is there a solution that (1) is a drop-in solution, and (2) is affordable? I hope so, but I don't have clarity on it." (From AVwebFlash 7/29/11)
